1937 - That Wonderful Year

In Colliers magazine they were advertising Cadillacs for $1445; Liberty offered a new Willys for $395; Clegg's Model A and Sis Buddy's Ford were not for sale. "You can't take it with you" had opened in New York, but 153 members of HMHS class of '37 were convinced that they were going to.

Duke Ellington had just copyrighted Caravan and Charlie Mulloy was introducing the Lambeth Walk to his unsophisticated colleagues; the Little Theater hadn't folded yet, and a good Saturday night date at the "Dump" might take you to see "Night Must Fall" or "Emile Zola". (Louise Rainer won the Academy Award that year.) Little did you know you'd be able to see the same movies 25 years later, on the Late Late Show in your family room! If you were really well-heeled and had as much as a dollar left after the movies, you could live it up with 5 gallons of gasoline in your father's car (75¢) and a bag of 6 hamburgers at the White Tower (25¢)! If you were short of cash, you stayed home and danced to a radio that played "Once in a While", "Pennies from Heaven", "They can't take that away from me". And if you had no date at all, you could fill a good many evenings with that new best seller "Gone with the Wind".

Things were going on outside HMHS and its environs, but in the flush of a Washington Trip, a football season that Lefty Sinclair made triumphant with a field goal over Collingswood, not everyone realized how close these events were upon us. A noisy German Chancellor impertinently repudiated the Versailles Treaty on January 30th; and on the September 21st after graduation, Japanese airplanes were to bomb Nanking and Canton. Stanley Baldwin graduated from being Prime Minister 3 weeks before we did, and was succeeded by a man who took his umbrella everywhere he went.

There were names in the domestic U.S. news that would be around for a long time: a Detroit citizen named Joseph Louis knocked out Jim Braddock on June 22nd, in the 8th round, and took over the World's Heavyweight Boxing Championship. The New York mayor who read the comics started his second term, and Thomas Dewey became District Attorney for the Big City. On June 1st Amelia Earheart set forth to circle the globe; one month later to the day, she sent her last message from somewhere over the Pacific. F.D.R. was reaping love and hatred from a nation just emerging from WPA and PWA. On August 25th he signed the Modified Court Procedure Act, part of his original program inspired by Nine Old Men; on September 28th at the Bonneville Dam in Oregon he promised a balanced budget for the next fiscal year. Some things haven't changed.

When '37 graduated, baseball season had just commenced. The Yankees were going to win the series in the fall, of course, this time by defeating the Giants -- who considered California a nice place to visit, but they wouldn't live there on a bet.

It's easy to feel paternal about ourselves 25 years ago. We thought we weren't -- but we really were -- typical high school seniors. How many American high school yearbooks have ended their class histories as we: "And at last we reached sunlight ... we parted sadly but bravely to face a new world"? "We gave our school the best we had", said Helen Young in our class song; and while that may be true, there's another line that says "Through studies we were ever glad", and that one is difficult to believe.

Class of '37 thought itself pretty sophisticated. Half the biographies make us out to be Casanovas or Brigitte Bardots. (The other half seem to indicate we never did any homework.) And the story of the Washington Trip is loaded with sexy innuendos about the boys' floor visiting the girls' floor and vice versa. Let us all -- who are now fearful parents -- take heart from that, for the class of '37 wasn't really all that jaded. In fact, we were (and it's proper that we should have been) both sentimental and naive.

Despite the scintillating thespians of Grumpy and Quality Street, the Class of '37 produced no actors, to our knowledge. But we have spawned engineers, entrepreneurs, executives and grandparents. More important, most of us have had the good fortune to have lived happily ever after for the past 25 years -- no mean feat at all, in this world of ours. For this good fortune we are thankful ... and being human, are presumptuous enough to hope for an additional 25 years credit. Come 1987, let's hope we have received it.

Meanwhile, we meet on Reunion Night, 25 years after That Wonderful Year of 1937, and as many years older. As we look around about (and perhaps in the mirror as well) to observe whiter, sparser hair, thickening silhouettes and other signs of time's advance, we can take heart from one thought: The Class of '37 was once a Freshman Class. And then we looked young to the classes of '36, '35 and '34. And we still do!

ALLEN, ELIZABETH W. (Mrs. G.M. Hinchman) 54 Euclid Avenue, Haddonfield, N.J. The Yearbook said Betty was undecided as to her future, but by 1941 she had made up her mind for good. She married Gib Hinchman, let him go off to Europe in the war, and worked at Boy Scout Hq. in Camden. They spent a year in North Carolina after Gib's return, and subsequently returned to Haddonfield, where with 13 year old twin boys, and another male of 10, they are living happily ever after. Gib is with Lucas Paint Company.

ANDERSON, EMILY (Mrs. Paul Leeds) Fairfax Avenue, P.O.Box 6, Berlin, N.J. Emily made good on a Shield prediction, or if the "P.L." we talked about in her biography isn't the Paul Leeds she married in May of 1938, your editor is in trouble. Emily and Paul have one child, a son.

ANGELLO, THERESA E. (Mrs. James Taylor) Stanwood Road, RFD 1 Box 199, Mt Kisco, N.Y. Theresa told us, 25 years ago, that her favorite hobbies were cooking and sewing. She now has every opportunity to practice them to the benefit of husband Dr. James Taylor and 3 children: 2 girls and a boy.

APPLEGATE, ELEANOR (Mrs. William Gaudin) 65 Kimble Avenue, Mexico, Me. When Eleanor wrote on April 13th to say that unfortunately she can't make the Reunion, there was snow on the ground in Maine! She and her husband moved up there shortly after their first two children were born, and built their home themselves. Their son, Bill, passed away last year at 15, and they have two daughters: Betty, who is almost 19, and Sara, who is pushing 8. Eleanor reports that she is very busy, what with family, spring cleaning, and a part time job.

ATKINSON, ALVA (Mrs. Lewis Sharp) 52 Bank Street, Medford, N.J. Alva and her husband have one child, and report that they will be unable to be with us this reunion. They have a special celebration of their own coming up on the 4th of July, for it will be their 20th wedding anniversary.

BARNARD, H. ELIZABETH (Mrs. C.M. Clegg) 24 Corona Road, R. Brunswick, N.J. There's a good cross-reference here to "Clegg, C.M.", for Betty and Clancy proved that as classmates we were quite compatible: they got married! Now, almost 20 years after they took the step (July '42) the Clegg family includes 3 girls and a boy. The girls came first - one is 15-1/2 and there are 10-1/2 year old twins; the ball player is 4-1/2.

BARRATT, GORDON, 312 Walnut Street, Haddonfield,N.J. No reply.

BARRETT, JANET (Mrs. William A. Crombie) Box 268, Anchorage, Ky. 25 years ago, we commented that Janet was among the few to finish "Gone with the Wind". She must have fallen in love with the Southland, for there she lives with husband William and one son and daughter. Her husband is a manufacturer's representative. We'll miss Janet, who can't make it to the Reunion.

BATTEN, HARRY L. 112 Cornell Avenue, Stratford, N.J. Harry has done his bit toward the class statistics: he and his wife, Evelyn Simpson, have 2 boys and a girl. Harry is a maintenance machinist at R.M. Hollingshead Corporation.

BELLA, ELLEN A. (Mrs. William Muncey) Atco Avenue, Atco, N.J. No Reply.

BENNETT, ELIZABETH ANN (Mrs. John R. Avery) Apt.609, 915 Queen Anne Avenue, Seattle, Wash. No reply.

BENNETT, RUSSELL N. State Highway 73, Kresson, N.J. No reply.

BERRY, MARY ELIZABETH (Mrs. Bernard Leonard) 32 W. Union St., Burlington, N.J. No reply.

BIEMILLER, RICHARD C. 78 D Parkway Apts., Haddonfield, N.J. No reply.

BISIGNANO, ANNE M. (Mrs. Charles A. Kohler) 404 Manor Drive, Columbia, Mo. Anne followed through with her Shield prediction to become a nurse, and is now a certified registered anesthetist, from time to time. Mostly, however, she's the wife of Dr. Charles Kohler, and mother of a 3 year old. Anne can't make this Reunion.

BISIGNANO, ERMA, RFD No. 2, Marlton, N.J. No reply.

BLANCK, DORIS (Mrs. Robert Fleche) 134 Tansboro Rd., Berlin, N.J. Back in '37 Doris said she was going to be a nurse, but she played it cagey in her questionnaire and we only know that if she did become one, she succumbed to matrimony in 1942, and married Bob Fleche. They have two girls. She was cagey, too, about coming to the Reunion when she wrote us. We hope we do see her.

BOWEN, CHARLES M. 235 Winding Way, Moorestown,N.J. Student Body Prexy Charlie went from Ursinus to the Naval Air Force, where he served in the South Pacific. Thence to York to pursue his chosen career of accountancy. Author and speaker on the same subject, Charlie is Controller of Comad, heavy equipment distributors in Moorestown. Married to Ellen Rice in 1948, they have 2 boys: David, 11; and Keith, 7.

BOWEN, THOMAS, 2 Lowry's Lane, Rosemont, Pa. Tom married Jeanne Rigley in 1943, and they have a 14 year old daughter. He seemed vehement, in answering the questionnaire, about not having grandchildren -- but we might check with his daughter several years from now. Tom is Senior Engineer at Automatic Timing & Controls Inc., King of Prussia, and thus has followed through on the technical career we predicted for him.

BRENNAN, CONSTANCE L. (Mrs. Raymond E. Kerlin) 3 Bonnie Rae Drive, Trenton, N.J. We hope Connie won't be at the Reunion -- because if she's not present, it will mean she has been able to visit her "reactivated" husband, Lt. Col. Raymond Kerlin, in France. Wonder what she'll do with their 3 children -- a girl and two boys?

BROOKS, SARA (Mrs.John Bevan) 559 E. Holly Ave., Pitman, N.J. No reply.

BROWN, BETTY M. (Mrs. Stephen Shockley) 117 Euclid Avenue, Haddonfield, N.J. Betty joined N.W. Ayer Advertising Agency after graduation, but forsook Madison Avenue for marriage to Stephen Shockley, who bears the dubious honor of being Haddonfield's first draftee. Betty accompanied Steve to Louisiana, and then to Prince Rupert, B.C. Back to civilian life, Steve is in the wholesale furniture business, and Betty is busily preparing for her oldest daughter's wedding this June. One more girl and two boys round out their family of 4.

BROWN, ROBERT C. 6518 Rolling Rock Drive, Nashville 5, Tennessee. Bob can't make it up from the Tennessee Products & Chemical Corporation, where he is assistant to the Vice President for International Affairs -- a logical step, since he graduated from Georgetown with a B.S. in Foreign Service. Bob and his wife Margaret were married in June, 1949; have 2 girls and a boy — and another expected in September.

BUCCIALIA, ANNE (Mrs. George Bisignano) Pine Grove, Marlton, N.J. Anne's another one of our group who knew what she wanted to do in '37 and then proceeded to do it: she is a Registered Nurse, and now serves as Public Health Nurse for Burlington County. Anne and George have two children: a boy and a girl.

BUDDY, SARAH JANE (Mrs. Adam G. Swiss) 505 Worcester Rd., Towson, Md. We're looking forward to seeing "Sis", who promises to make the Reunion, although without her doctor husband, unfortunately. She and Dr. Swiss have two children -- a boy and girl.

BURNISON, JEANNETTE (Mrs. Kelly Niederjohn) 50 Putnam Ave., Pittsfield, Mass. Until the last moment, Jeannette had hoped to be with us, but family responsibilities closed in, so we won't be able to see her. Reading her letter, we can well understand why she's busy, what with a boy graduating from high school this summer (and accepted in 4 colleges!), another in a sophomore honors course, and a daughter of 10 who's an expert at the twist. Jeannette also works as secretary to the Education Department of the 1st Methodist Church in Pittsfield, and both she and her husband are very active in community affairs.

BUTLER, CECILIA M. (Mrs. Michael Harte) 212 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N.J. Cecilia identifies herself as a homemaker -- and with 4 children (2 boys and 2 girls) she must be kept busy at it! We hope to see her at the Reunion.

CARPENTER, EDWARD, 33051 Speedway, Austin, Texas. No reply.

CAVANNA, JANE A (Mrs. John Bleakly) 148 Heritage Road, Haddonfield, N.J. Jane, mother of two boys (11 and 14) and one girl (18) remains the master of the euphemism: her occupation is listed as "domestic engineer". Jack is President of Bleakly Real Estate Company of Cherry Hill Township. The entire family deserts the area in the summer, though, for Ocean City -- the sun, the brine, and above all, the fishing!

CHAMBERS, HARRY, Holly Glen Drive, Hunt Tract, Haddonfield, N.J. No reply.

CHEW, MILDRED (Mrs. Jesse O'Neill) 505 Graisbury Ave., Haddonfield, N.J. No reply.

CLEGG, CLARENCE MERRILL, 24 Corona Road, E. Brunswick, N.J. Clancy zoomed through Lehigh and the Air Corps quite as effectively as he zoomed in the Model A. Assistant Plant Engineer for a division of Personal Products Corporation, father of 4 children, husband of a classmate (see BARNARD, BETTY), it couldn't happen to a nicer guy!

CLEVENGER, BETTY. No record.

CONLEY, BEATRICE (Mrs. Pat Vitarelli) 135 Pine Avenue, W. Berlin, N.J. It will be delightful to see Bea once more, and to meet her husband, Pat: both plan to make the Reunion. Bea makes the Great Commute into Philadelphia, where she is a teller at the Philadelphia National Bank.

COX, CHARLES K. 214 Barberry Lane, Haddonfield, N.J. Our Grand Master of the Reunion went from HMHS to Princeton, and there are lots of stories right there! Thence to the Army, serving as a lieutenant in Africa and Europe. Having seen all the world could offer, he fell in love with Doris Cummings, HMHS'40, married and settled down to the delights of non-domesticity, producing two boys and a girl. Charlie is Secretary of Insurance Company of North America, an articulate oppositionist (whichever side you happen to take) and appears to prove we knew how to select Valedictorians.

CUTLER, HELEN. No record.

DAUER, GERALDINE (Mrs. Daniel J. Henry) 259 Bewley Rd., Haddonfield, N.J. Committeewoman Gerry took time out from 2 daughters and her husband's business to help work on the Reunion. The daughters? Geraldine, 13, and Jacqueline, 10. The business? Gerry and Daniel Henry, whom she married in 1946, run a Real Estate and Insurance firm. With all this, she somehow had time to teach kindergarten in Audubon for 8 years! In '37 we said we envied the children she would teach, and we're still inclined to think they were very lucky.

DE GRASSE, MARIE (Mrs. Frederick Schuele) 28 Cooper Street, Westmont, New Jersey. Marie married Frederick Schuele in 1945, and specialized in having daughters.

They have three: 16, 13, and 7 years old. Marie and her husband are planning to be with us, and we're looking forward to hearing her infectious laugh once more.

DI MARCO, VIOLA JOAN (Mrs. Elmer E. Brown) 2707 Sherman Ave., Pennsauken, N. J. We will miss Joan, for she tells us she will be unable to make the Reunion. It would have been fun to find out more about what she has been doing since '37: we only know, from the questionnaire, that she married Elmer Brown in 1947, and they have a daughter.

DODGE, ARTHUR. No record.

DOUGHTY, ALVIN, 1405 Oak Ave., Haddon Heights, N.J. Al is one of the few of us who produced twins: Nancy and Dan, 9 years old. In addition, Al and his wife have 3 more children: Alvin Jr,, 12, Arthur 6, and Sally, 5. Al is with Texaco.

DOUGHTY, MARY VIRGINIA (Mrs. Alfred Glading) 54 Marlton Road, Woodstown, N.J. Here's a gal whose husband takes care of the mail! Al Glading, whom she married in 1941, filled out the questionnaire, reported 2 sons, said "Whoa" when we asked about grandchildren, and described Ginny's current status as "mother, housewife, general all-around handy gal".

DOWNES, RUTH (Mrs. Carl Auwarter) Taunton Road, Tansboro, N.J. Ruthie deserted us in September of senior year for the much more interesting life of matrimony. The Auwarters' three children -- Carl, Carolyn, and Edward, are 25, 23, and 19 years old. Ruth and husband Carl own and operate a public racing stable of from 10 to 15 thorough-bred horses. They have a 5 month old grandson.

DOWNES, DORIS (Mrs. James Smith) 51 Lukens St., Trevose, Pa. Doris married James Smith in 1939, and they now boast 5 children -- 3 boys and 2 girls. She's a busy housewife, she reports, and we can understand why. We're looking forward to seeing her again at the Reunion.

DREISBACH, KENNETH W. 305 White Horse Pike, Haddon Heights, N.J. The man with the dangerous Chevy is now a Marine Design Engineer at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. We hope there's no connection between Ken's 1937 car and what he turns out at work today. This point can be checked out at the Reunion, which he plans to attend together with his wife, Janet.

EBRIGHT,DOROTHY BELL (Mrs. William E. Stuffer) Coles Mill Road, RFD No.1, Franklinville, N.J. Dot married William Stuffer while still in our senior year. They have 2 girls and a boy -- matched by 2 grandchildren, and a third due right now! Dot is a Licensed Practical Nurse, and works in the operating room at Memorial Hospital in Woodbury.

EDGAR, JESSE, 4706 Constitution NE, Albuquerque, N.M. A delightful letter from Jess in far off New Mexico tells us he won't make Haddonfield until August, but brings us up to date on his doings. Jess flew 30 missions as bombardier during the war, is a major in the Reserves, but still manages 2 jobs. He has his own business as an Architectural Designer, J.B. Edgar & Associates. Jess has designed several hundreds of the new homes going up in Albuquerque, and is an enthusiastic fan of the wideopen western states. He married Marilyn Thygesen in 1946, and has a daughter 13, and a son, 9.

ELLINGER, MAE L. (Mrs. Robert Tochterman) Woodcrest RFD, Haddonfield, N.J. We're sorry Mae won't be able to join us Reunion night. She married Robert Tochterman in May of 1940, and they have two daughters: Mary Ann, 9, and Nancy, who is 8 months. Mae worked as a teletype operator for RCA for six years, running a hookup between the Indianapolis and Camden plants.

ELLSWORTH, ESTHER ELIZABETH (Mrs. Clyde Ehrke) Auburn Ave., Atco, N.J. Bette is apparently just as efficient as she used to be: she and husband Clyde have a boy and a girl, they also have one grandson; yet for the past 6-1/2 years she has worked as secretary to a

Chief of Service at the N.J. State Hospital at Ancora. It will be fun to have her with us on Reunion night.

FARQUHAR, JACK C. 4015 N. Warner Rd., Lafayette Hills, Pa. Our Class president has had a varied career since '37. He graduated from Springfield College in '42 with a BS in Physical Education, and returned to Haddonfield to teach for a year under Coach Lawson. Then the Naval Air Corps, for 3-1/2 years, as a Flight Instructor at Pensacola. Somewhere about that time he married Peggie Brown, and they have a boy of 10 and a girl of 7. Jack's with the Pioneer Paper Stock Company in Philadelphia now, but our star athlete retains his interest in sports. He's a member of the Wissahickon Badminton Club.

FEIGEL, ERICH W. 7731 Dungan Road, Philadelphia 11, Pa. Erich and his wife Elise, whom he married in 1941, will be on deck Reunion night. They have two boys -- Erich, 17, and William, 14. We wonder if they inherited their father's skill at baseball. Erich is a driver-salesman with National Yeast Corporation, in Cheltenham.

FERRIS, ADELE (Mrs. William Bond) 3170 Alkiri, Applewood Mesa, Golden, Colorado. Adele and Bill Bond were married in 1942, and have 3 boys, leaving Adele completely outnumbered. She has a career of her own, however, as a reading specialist in Jefferson County, Colorado, and at the moment is working on a research project for the Fels Foundation. The distance is too great -- she can't be with us on the 12th. But what a wonderful address they have!

FITZGERALD, GERTRUDE (Mrs. Thomas Burke) 319 Evergreen Ave., S. Merchantville, N.J. No reply.

FOGARTY, NORMA. No record.

FOWLER, NEWBERN R. 132 Cornell Ave., Stratford, N.J. Newby inspired the '37 Shield staff to poetry when we wrote him up, and in those memorable lines we predicted matrimony with Lois. Sure enough, he married Lois Greaser, '38, in 1943, and they have two boys, 12 and 15. Newby is Field Supervisor in the Industrial Division of American Standard.

FURNESS, HAROLD ALAN, 2041 Mahantonga St., Pottsville, Pa. It's back to civilian life for Alan, who has just returned from a tour of duty as a major in the U.S. Army. "Civilian life" means working as a Life Underwriter with Mutual of New York. Alan married Myrtle Young in '47, and they have one daughter.

GARWOOD, MILDRED (Mrs. Hobart Croft) 1320 Crestwood Drive, So. San Francisco, Cal. Mildred and her husband, Hobart Croft, have deserted the East for California. There they have a 17 year old daughter, who will graduate from high school this June, and they each pursue careers. Her husband is a Blacksmith and Ornamental Ironworker, and Mildred is a secretary for a biological laboratory. They both work, also, with the California Committee to Combat Communism.

GHANEY, FRANCES (Mrs. Bernard Conniff) 5 E. Franklin Avenue, Collingswood, N. J. Fran worked as a secretary at RCA, and married Bernard Conniff in 1955. They have one boy, and we hope his mother bakes a cake for him now and then just like those she made in her school days. We'll see Fran at the Reunion.

GREY, BENJAMIN, Old Road, Blackwood, N.J. One of our favorite milers, Ben won't be with us to exchange reminiscences, because he will be recuperating from an operation. His questionnaire tells us that he married Frances E. Lantry of Collingswood in 1943, and that he is Controller of Stephen Whitman and Sons in Philadelphia.

GSELL, ANNA MAE, 5151 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. We're looking forward to seeing Anna Mae quite as much as she said, on her questionnaire, that she is to seeing us. There are all sorts of things we want to find out: What about those marionettes she used to make? What about that chic coiffure with which she dazzled us?

GUTHIER, HELEN (Mrs. Wm. Longley) 203 Harding Ave., Haddon Twp.,No reply.

HAYES, JOHN L. 78 Bonnet Lane, Hatboro, Pa. One of the most enthusiastic reports came in from Jack, who expressed better than any of us how well the High School prepared him. He cited teacher after teacher who helped him -- Gist, Mac, Dykhuizen, McCaulley, Hill, Cronlund and many more that we remember with affection. After a year at Colorado State and a stint at N.Y. Ship, Jack entered the Air Force and flew as a bombardier in the Pacific. Home again, he entered Penn State, had a ball his first 3 years and then married Danny, who kept him on the straight and narrow through graduation. Jack and Danny have a 6 year old daughter, Patty, and a 2 year old son, Peter. Jack's with Leeds & Northrup and just recently tackled a new assignment for them. Jack's letter proposes an annual class newsletter: a good idea, and we nominate him as editor!

HENSCHEL, MARGARET D. (Mrs. Francis Durham) Ridgewood, N.J. Marge married Francis Durham in 1948, and promptly deserted South Jersey. Her husband is making a career of the Air Force.

HENSCHEL, MARIE (Mrs. James Durham) 118 Orion Rd., Green Core Springs, Fla. No reply.

HILES, KATHERINE (Mrs. Alvin Evanoff) 235 Meadow Drive, Haddonfield, N.J. Kay worked in Philadelphia from graduation until 1955, as secretary to a lawyer, a U. of P. professor, and then to the Director of Engineering at the International Resistance Company. While all this was going on she married Alvin Evanoff, in 1948, and they now have a 6 year old named Alan, and a 3 year old named Valerie. Alvin is a salesman with McAllen Buick in Haddonfield, and we'll see both of them at the Reunion.

HILL, GILBERT M. Carl Macklay Apts., Apt. 264, M & Bristol Sts., Phila. 24, Pa. Ted Walton wrote in the Yearbook that Gil's ambition was to reform the world, and we're looking forward to seeing what progress has been made when we meet him and wife Bernice Reunion night. As Assistant Dean, College of Liberal Arts, Temple University, he's certainly in a good position to set his plans in motion. Gil and his wife have one boy and one girl: we hope their son has inherited Gil's administrative skills, and that their daughter has inherited his thespian knack.

HILLMAN, ELEANOR (Mrs. Warren Jones) Monmouth Road, Wrightstown, N.J. Eleanor and her husband Warren own a large Dairy Farm in Wrightstown, and have a 17 year old boy and a 15 year old daughter. Warren Jr. enters college in the fall, and Diane is a sophomore at Northern Burlington County Regional High. We're looking forward to being with Eleanor and her husband at the Reunion.

HINES, JOHN, Greentree Rd., Marlton, N.J. No reply.

HITCHENS, CHALONER, U.S. Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile., Michigan. This address is really wrong, for by the time this is published, only Chal's wife and 2 daughters will be in Michigan -- and they will be awaiting orders to join the head of the family in Iceland. Chal is a Chaplain with the U.S. Navy, a Lieutenant Commander, and expects to spend the next two years in Iceland. We will miss him at the Reunion.

HORTON, FRED, 222 Harvard Avenue, Stratford, N.J. We're especially sorry Fred won't be with us, because we wanted the chance to check out the Yearbook's comment that he remained immune to feminine blandishments. Has this strange power persisted through 25 years? Now we won't know until the next Reunion. In his note of regret, Fred was kind enough to send a donation along with his best wishes to all of us.

HUMPHREY, MARIE (Mrs. Harry Green) Cleveland Rd., Merchantville, N.J. No reply.

HUNT, VIRGINIA (Mrs. Frank Willis) 16 Colonial Ave., Haddonfield, N.J. No reply.

HYDE, ARTHUR S. 3 E. Clementon Rd., Gibbsboro, N.J. Art and wife Ruth Craig (from class of '39) will be with us on Reunion night, and we'll be able to listen to the great raconteur of '37. Art's in the plastics business, and has a son and a daughter to keep practicing on, so we suspect he's still pretty good.

IRWIN, ANNA (Mrs. William MacMullen) 402 E. Linden Ave., Lindenwold, N.J. No reply.

JOHNSON, MARIAN, 48th & Chester Ave., Philadelphia, Pa. No reply.

KELLY, RUTH ANN (Mrs. Emil Skrotsky) Avda. Habana 50-5D, Paseo de la Habana, Madrid, Spain. No reply.

KEMP, EDNA MAY (Mrs. Robert R. Godard) 365 Derrick Road, Uniontown, Pa. Edna May sent her regrets for the reunion before the Blough/Kennedy parleys, or else -- since her husband Robert is an engineer with U.S. Steel -- we would have guessed she was avoiding a good political discussion. But on second thought, Edna May was never one to shirk that sort of thing! Is her hair still that glorious red? That she didn't tell us, but we do know that she's involved with community work, a new daschund pup, and a husband who doesn't sympathize with her unrequited ambition to raise Jersey tomatoes in Pennsylvania soil.

LEAFSTROM, CLARA E. (Mrs. Harl S. Day) 11311 E. 87th Street, Kansas City 3, Mo. Our permanent class treasurer (for four years straight, no less) married Harl Day in 1942, and they have 3 girls and a boy. One or more of their offspring (Clara didn't tell us their ages) have produced a total of 3 grandchildren, 2 girls and a boy. Harl is President of Standard Steel Works in North Kansas City. Missouri's too far away -- we'll see them next Reunion.

LE COMPTE, JOSEPH, 334 Flushing Street, Burlington, N.C. For a man whom we accused of using books as a place to hide behind in 1937, Joe has proved us all wrong. He is head of the English and Arts Departments, Central High School, Alamance County, Graham, N.C., and served similarly in Wake Forest and Burlington. Joe and his wife, Mary Jean, have a boy of 7 and a girl of 3.

LEE, FELIX, JR. Somewhere in North Jersey.

LEES, JOHN ROBERT, 4404 S. Atlantic Avenue, Tulsa 5, Okla. Our star drummer hopes to be with us, but should he not make it, he has suggested that we put his check to use in the "social hour kitty", a generosity your editor applauds. Bob married Becky Bennett from Joplin, Missouri, in 1943, and they have two boys. Ages were unspecified, but by the query "Grandchildren?" Bob wrote "Too early for this line". He's District Manager, Tulsa Office, I-T-E Circuit Breaker Company.

LEHMAN, THOMAS E. 112 Summit Avenue, Laurel Springs, N.J. Tom and his wife Catherine have 3 children (2 girls and a boy) and one grandchild. Tom is with Service Motor Freight in Lawnside, N.J.

LENNOX, ALMA, 2628 Brookside Drive, Elgin, Illinois, Alma went to Marshall College and after taking her AB she took graduate courses at Northwestern and Northern Illinois. A consultant in elementary education, she is with Allyn & Bocan, Inc.

LISHMAN, ELIZABETH W. (Mrs. Maurice A. Rudderow Jr.) RFD Elbow Lane Road, Mooreston, N.J. Libby claimed, 25 years ago, that "boys meant nothing" -- and we doubted the truth of that. Time has proved us right, for she's outnumbered completely now, with two male children, 17 and 20. The elder is a sophomore at Rutgers University, taking an agricultural course; and the younger is a Junior at Lenape Regional High. The Rudderows own and operate a Dairy Farm in Mount Laurel Township, and they'll join us Reunion night.

LOGAN, THOMAS P. Apt. 2-1802, 577 Grand St., New York, 2, N.Y. Your editor did a pretty bad job on Tom in 1937, for we eulogized his up-to-date knowledge of dates, gossip, and so on. Tom has indeed gone on to better things: he is now the Reverend Logan, Priest-in-charge, St. Augustine's Chapel of Trinity Parish in Downtown New York. We'll regret not seeing him at the Reunion: Tom will be on a trip to the West Coast.

MacCLELLAND, MARY (Mrs. Malcolm Johnson) 242 Mountwell Avenue, Haddonfield, N.J. Mary married the guy who tolerated, encouraged, and steered the Class of '37 for all four years: Mary and Mac were both lucky! Their 17 year old son, Bob, graduates from HMHS this year. Your editor feels sorry to have missed all the Reunion Committee meetings, to which he understands Mary and Jane Bleakly contributed continuous hilarity.

MacDONALD, STANLEY, 21 Chestnut Street, Beacon Hill, Boston, Mass. We hope Stan's wife, Eileen, whom he married in 1942, has read the '37 Shield writeup, and inquired about his trips to Wildwood, feminine conquests and so on. Stan and Eileen live in Massachusetts, where he is on the Technical Staff of The Mitre Corporation.

MANKEY, HELEN (Mrs. Charles Ware) 433 Elm St., Woodbury Hts., N.J. No reply.

MARSHALL, DOROTHY (Mrs. Elwood Vitet) 1636 Ferry Avenue, Woodlynne, N.J. Dot's got a prior commitment, but hopes to stop in later in the evening on Reunion night to be with us. She is head conveyancer with South Jersey

Mortgage Company in Camden, and her husband is with DuPont in Deepwater, N.J.... despite two jobs in the family, they have two daughters -- Lee (19) and Lynn (11). Lee and Dot spend their vacations travelling, and have covered a good bit of the country doing so.

MARVILLE, DOROTHY M. Port Margot, Haiti, West Indies. Although Dot won't be with us on Reunion night, she'll be coming back on furlough in June, and perhaps some of us will be able to renew old acquaintance. Dot is a medical missionary in Haiti, and works in a hospital dispensary.

McCLOSKEY, ELIZABETH (Mrs. William Miller) 471 A Highland Ave., Collingswood, N.J. Betty was one of very few who evoked poetry from the Shield Staff in '37. She has been doing that, we'll wager, from the various bosses she worked for as secretary to the Superintendent of Cherry Hill Schools, a chemical company, and Automatic Switch. Betty and her husband William have a 2 year old son.

McNEILE, HUGH R. Springdale Road, Cherry Hill, N.J. Mac was looking toward a sheep ranch when he graduated from HMHS, but he now has the best of two worlds: he has remained in Jersey, and he has a farm. (Cynics would say he has the best of three worlds: he is still single!)

MEILI, EUGENE, 212 1st Ave., W. Berlin, N.J. No reply.

MILLER, L. VIRGINIA (Mrs. Robert O'Connor) 340 Godwin Avenue, Ridgewood, N.J. For Ginny the Shield had predicted a singing career, but one Dr. Robert O'Connor intervened shortly after she graduated from Penn. Ginny and her husband, who is a Cardiologist and Assistant Dean of N.Y. Medical College, have 3 children, a house in Bay Head, and are living happily ever after. We hope to have her with us.

MITCHELL, ROBERT, 138 Sterling Avenue, Linwood, N.J. We were wrong! The Shield talked about "E.C.", but Bob married Hazel Myers from the Class of '40. They have specialized in girls (three: 17, 12, and 11.)Bob's a Wholesale Sales Representative, and will be with us on Reunion night.

MORGAN, FRED R. State Highway 73, Kresson, N.J. Fred and his wife, Shirley, will be with us on Reunion night. They have 5 children.-- 3 girls and 2 boys -- and with all that family, plus Fred's electrical work, we wonder if he still has time to hunt.

MULLOY, CHARLES R., JR., 125 Wedgewood Lane, Haddonfield, N.J. Shortly after graduation, Charlie and your editor had a wonderful weekend at Wellesley, but subsequently both went off in different directions. Charlie graduated from Temple, and is a Buyer with Philadelphia Quartz Company, and is very active in the town: he's Trustee for the Historical Society, and a member of the Haddonfield Civic Association, and the Haddonfield Meeting of Friends, as well as the Library Company. He married Dorothy Elkington in 1946, and they have one son, Charles III.

NEFF, GRACE A. (Mrs. Harry Jones) Cooper Road, Atco, N.J. We'll see Grace and meet her husband, Harry Jones, at the Reunion. They were married in '38,and have a girl and a boy -- as well as a 2 year old grandson. Harry is a lithographer in Philadelphia.

NEVIUS, KENNETH, 130 Greenwood Drive, Manchester, Conn. Ken went on from Haddonfield to Dartmouth, graduating in '41 -- and acquiring a wife somewhere along the line (Peggy Martins, in 1939). They have two children-- a boy 21 and another of 5, and Ken is Senior Underwriter for Mutual Insurance Company of Hartford.

NEVIUS, M. LEROY, 300 Kings Highway E., Haddonfield, N.J. Roy and his wife, Edith, will be with us for the Reunion, and we intend to find out from Edith if their three children were as fascinated with driving as their father. Roy and his wife also have one grandchild, a girl. Roy is owner of Contractors Estimating Service, in Haddonfield.

O'NEIL, ESAU, 292 W. Oak Avenue, Lawnside, N.J. Esau married Sallie Tanksley in 1954, after Army service from '41 through '45. He attended Lincoln University in '46 and '47, and is back at the books again at Temple and Glassboro State Teachers. Esau works with the U.S. Army Signal Supply Agency -- and we'll be seeing him and his wife on Reunion night.

OSTMAN, NORMAN (Mrs. Thomas Turnbull) No reply.

PARKER, ARTHUR, we're sorry Art won't be with us, for his questionnaire was so skimpily filled out there's lots we need to learn. About the only thing we do know is that he's the proud father of 3 children: a girl and 2 boys.

PARKER, HOWARD, c/o Imdasa, Avda. del Orano 848, Buenos Aires, Argentina. We wonder if our varsity football member has convinced los argentinos that "futbol" is soccer and "football" is something else again? Howard is general manager of Kaiser Aluminum in Argentina, the father of 2 sons and 2 daughters. All this, after 3 years in the service, plus education at the Colorado School of Mines, N.Y.U., Washington & Chicago University.

PATTERSON, JAMES, 19 Lakeside, Woodcrest, N.J. No reply.

PEALE, VIOLET (Mrs. J. Beirne)431 Buttonwood Avenue, Maple Shade, N.J. Vi married Jerry Beirne in '54, and they have a 5 year old daughter, Bonny. We're curious about the years between, but the questionnaire is mute. Jerry is a model maker.

PETHERBRIDGE, DAVID W. Kaunakakai Baptist Church, Molokai, Hawaii. A 1942 Army Transport "Two Weeks Trip" out of New York is what put David in Hawaii. The North Atlantic voyage somehow stopped in Honolulu, where Dave debarked and fell in love with the daughter of the pastor of the Baptist Church. They both went to Baylor University, and married while there. Returning to Hawaii, after graduating from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, David had several charges, now serves as pastor of the church named above. The Pethebridges have a son 8, and twin boys, 3-1/2.

PETIT, ADELE (Mrs. Walter B. Riley, Jr.) 735 Linwood Avenue, Collingswood, N.J. Reunion Committeewoman Adele went from HMHS to Camden Commercial College, married Walter Riley in 1943, and lived all over the States during the war. They're in this area now, where Walter is a Vice President for Bob Scarborough Construction Company, and have 2 boys, 14 and 12. Adele's still an athlete: she water skiis at Barnegat Bay in the summer, and does the same thing on snow in Canada during the winter.

PRIGGEMEIER, EVELYN B. (Mrs. Edwin Keck) 192 Pine Ave., W. Berlin, N.J. Evelyn lost her first husband, Howard Holloway, in 1945, and worked both at Penn Mutual Life Insurance and Church of the Open Door in Philadelphia. In 1956 she married Edwin Keck, a Research Analyst in the Department of Defense. They have two daughters -- Holly, 4, and Carol, 1. Although Major Keck will be on active duty at the time of our Reunion, they both hope to be with us for the evening.

REIS, GEORGE E. 9212 Villa Drive, Bethesda, Maryland. We said it in the Shield, and George followed through: he travelled! George joined Moore McCormack Steamship Line in '38, and is now District Sales & Passenger Manager for S.E. U.S.A., headquartered in Washington, but with opportunities to get to Europe, West Indies, South America. George married Ruth Peacock in 1943, and we like her very much -- for she mailed the questionnaire after he filled it out and left for Florida! They have a 14 year old son, Kenneth.

ROCKEFELLER, ELIZABETH, Rural Avenue, Osage, N.J. Betty will be present at the Reunion. She's a Comptometer Operator at Westinghouse Electric Supply Company in Philadelphia, and we're looking forward to getting up to date on her doings since graduation.

RODAN, JOHN G., 27 Heritage Road, Haddonfield, N.J. Jack went to Penn, graduated in '41 and entered the Army. Discharged in '45, he worked with Atlantic Refining until the idea of having a boss palled, and in 1953 he established his own vending machine business. This was, we trust, with the encouragement of Gerry, whom he married in 1950. They have 2 children -- Wendy, 6, and Mark, 4. Jack reports his normal activity as a (mild) continual Battle of the Bulge. He and Gerry will be with us.

ROSE, JOAN W. No record.

SCHLEINKOFER, PAUL, 61 Winding Way, Stratford, N.J. Paul recently retired from the U.S. Navy as a C.P.O., after 20 years of active service that included duty in Panama and Copenhagen. Paul and his wife Catherine have two daughters, 14 and 8 -- and Paul is now in Civil Service as a Superintendent of Clerk Procurement at the Marine Corps Service Facility in Philadelphia.

SCHULTE, MARY JANE (Mrs. Albert C. Rush) Lewis & Cuthbert Street, Palmyra, N.J. Mary straddles the tricky business of being a career housewife: she works in the office of Strawbridge & Clothier in Philadelphia, while husband Albert works as a plasterer. We hope they make it -- if only to hear Mary's infectious giggle again.

SEELING, GLADYS (Mrs. Karl Stubbins) Walnut Avenue, Kirkwood, N.J. Gladys has remained true blue to HMHS. She married another graduate (Karl Stubbins, in 1938), and their daughter graduated from HMHS 5 years ago -- and married another graduate! They have two grandsons: Michael and Glenn.

REYNOLDS, RUTH (Mrs. George Baxter) 2530 Forest Drive, Charlotte, N.C. We'll bet our class glamour girl makes a glamorous grandmother! For such she is: Ruthie married George Baxter (which shouldn't surprise anybody), and their son has a 9 month old boy. George won't be able to make Reunion, but Ruth will, and it will be fun seeing her again.

RICHARDS, HARRY, 605 Ocean Avenue, Ocean City, N.J. That swashbuckling captain of Quality Street is now an engineer, with the Cape May County Bridge Commission, but he and his wife will leave the Jersey Shore to join us for the Reunion. Harry and Evelyn have 3 children -- two girls and a boy.

RICHTER, ALBERTA M. (Mrs. Frederick Brink) 192 Pine Avenue, West Berlin, N.J. Bert and her husband, Fred, will be with us for the Reunion. They have one boy, and own West Berlin Florist.

RILEY, JOHN T. Division Road, Berlin, N.J. No reply.

ROBERTS,C. THORPE, 103 Couchman Avenue, Rochester, N.Y. After college, Thorpe entered the U.S. Navy, and married Ana Pelaez, a beautiful Cuban who captured your Editor's heart. They have 3 daughters: Anita, 15, Mimi, 11, and Betsy, 6. Thanks to the vagaries of business, each child was born in a different city. Since Betsy's birth, they've been at Rochester, where Thorpe is Superintendent of Cost Engineering at Graflex. Their summertime avocation is camping, and in the winter Ana and Thorpe swing each other around a local Square Dance Club, and maybe throw in a bit of cha-cha-cha.

ROBINSON, CATHERINE (Mrs. Alexander Morton, Jr.) 325 Covered Bridge Road, Haddonfield, N.J. Kay was one of our thespians,athletes, and journalists. She has left all for matrimony, with Alexander Morton, and for family: they have a son (Alex III, 20), and a daughter, Patricia, 18. We'll see Kay and meet Alex at the Reunion.

SEIBERT, HELEN (Mrs. S. Thomas Camp) 351 Broadway, Westville, N.J. No reply.

SEMLER, GEORGE, 79 Utica, Westmont, N.J. We predicted it in '37, and 4 years later George and Sally Kappel made it come true by getting married. They have 2 girls -- 19 and 12 years old, and George is Budget, Product & Supply Coordinator at Atlantic Refining in Philadelphia.

SHANNON, HARRIET M. (Mrs. James Crawford) 45 Barriclo Avenue, Trenton, N.J. Harriet and her husband, James, can't make it for Reunion, but we'll miss them: bet she's one of our youngest-looking grandmothers! This, despite the fact that she has 2, Jimmy and Douglas. Harriet is a Church Choir Director in Trenton.

SHANNON, RUTH (Mrs. E.H. Neill) 56 Bakers Hill Road, Weston, Mass. Lynn and her husband have a previous commitment in California at Reunion time, so we won't be able to see them . They have lived in West Virginia, North Jersey, and now in a small town just 12 miles from Boston. They have two boys (18 and 13), and a daughter (16), and Lynn's husband is with Industrial Stainless Steels in Cambridge.

SHIMMIN, MARGARET (Mrs. Warren Sheppard) 444 Kings Highway E., Haddonfield, N.J. Margaret told us, in '37, that she would study dietetics -- and her 5 children must give her plenty of practice: The boys (4) outnumber Margaret and daughter Judy. Margaret's husband is a machinist with New York Ship, and we hope to have them with us for Reunion.

SHIMMIN, WINIFRED (Mrs. Warren Deal) 414 W. Merchant Street, Audubon, N.J. The Reunion Committee's Sherlock Holmes, Winnie deserves thanks from all -- especially those of us who were difficult to track down. After service with the WAVES in Philadelphia and Pearl Harbor, Winnie married Warren Deal, class of '38. They have 3 boys -- Edward, Donald, and Jack, and Winnie is (can't help being) active as a Den Mother in Cub Scouts. She's also active in the Audubon Methodist Church Choir. Her husband is Manager of Sears & Roebuck Paint Dept.

SMITH, RUTH (Mrs. Thomas Maier) 6328 Longridge Ave., Van Nuys, California. There's not much news of Ruth, except that word has filtered back from the West Coast that she is the proud mother of 7 children. We haven't compiled the class statistics as of this writing, but that sounds like a record.

STEADMAN, FLORENCE (Mrs. Frank Haley, Jr.) 446 Hobart Drive, Barrington, N.J. No reply.

STRATTON, JESSIE (Mrs. Lochlin Huth) 2444 Swenson Place, Bellmore, N.Y. After graduation Jess went to work with Theodore Presser Music Company in Philadephia, and in 1940 she married Loch Huth, '36. They have a 20 year old daughter, Justine Katherine, who is a Physics major at N.Y. State Teachers College. Loch is a Chemistry teacher at Valley Stream, N.Y., and the Huths spend their summers touring.

SWIGERT, J. BRUCE, 100 Oxford Place, Glen Rock, N.J. After Haverford, your editor married Anne Webb, '39, and dashed off to the Army 4 days later. Service in Panama taught him enough Spanish to bluff his way into a South American post for a New York advertising agency, returning to the States in '51. His older boy was born in Cuba but hasn't joined Fidel yet. Eleven years and three agencies later, Bruce is V.P. of a small ad agency that specializes in overseas advertising.

TOULON, NAT, 4114 South Drive, New Iberia, La. No reply.

TURNER, RUTH (Mrs. Jack McClelland) 73183 Sunnyvale Drive, Twenty-nine Palms, California. No reply.

ULRICH, ARLENE (Mrs. Fred Sauerwein) 369 Station Avenue, Haddonfield, N.J. It will be grand to see Arlene and meet her husband at the Reunion. They have 2 boys -- Roderick, who is in his Junior year at Muhlenberg, and studying for the ministry; and Russell, who graduates from HMHS this year.

VAN ARKEL, BERNARD, 60 E. Germantown Pike, Norristown, Pa. Actor (Quality Street) and musician extraordinary, Bernie went to Haverford and to matrimony (Nancy Syme, in 1944). Children are reported as "3 Girls, 0 Boys, 1 Male Dog". Bernie, a Technical Sales Representative with R.T. Vanderbilt Co., will be at the Reunion, together with Nancy.

VAN ARKEL, MARGARET (Mrs. Jesse Lippincott) 17 N. Davis Street, Woodbury, N.J. Margaret graduated from Penn in 1941, and taught 1st grade in Woodstown N.J. and later in Delaware. Jesse was in the Marine Corps when they married, and Margaret covered the country pretty well, from Camp Lejeune to California. They have 3 children -- Debbie, 15, John, 12, and David,8. Jesse is Director of Personnel, R.C.A. Service Company, and probably is curious to meet all these classmates on whose Reunion Margaret has worked so hard.

VOIGHT, MARY (Mrs. Edwin Blodgett) 200 Whitewood Lane, Rochester, N.Y. We're sorry Mary won't be able to attend because her husband is convalescing from a heart attack. She reports a very full life for herself, her husband, 17 year old daughter Priscilla, 15 year old son Tom, and a dog named Mr. Digby and a cat named Faucette. Priscilla enters Wittenburg University in the fall, and Tom is very active in sports. Edwin is Vice President at Commercial Controls Corporation.

WALKER, THOMAS, West Hills Road, RFD 2, Huntingdon, L.I., N.Y. Tom went to Amherst, served in the U.S. Navy, married Emily, and they have two children -- 9 and 6. Tom is in the shipping business in New York.

WALSH, CHARLES S. Osage Rd. & Middlesex Ave., Ashland, N.J. Charlie and his wife Daisey, whom he married in 1941, will be with us Reunion night, and we look forward to finding out if he is still expert on the guitar. Charlie is Parts Deparment Manager for G.S.M. Inc. in Pennsauken.

WASHINGTON, PEARL (Mrs. Victor Carter) 1008 Cooper St., Camden, N.J. No reply.

WEAVER, VIRGINIA (Mrs. Wm. Bostack) 2 Glen Forest, Ladue, St. Louis, Mo. No reply.

WELLS, DOROTHEA (Mrs. Spencer Bennett) 101 W. 5th St., Runnemede, N.J. No reply.

WELLS, IDA F. 24 E Marlton St. No reply.

WINTER, CATHERINE, 338 Mink Avenue, W. Berling, N.J. No reply.

YOUNG ELLEN (Mrs. H.T. McCaffrey) 6002 Old Oakes Rd., Springfield, Va. No reply.

YOUNG, HELEN (Mrs. Helen Bossart) 520 W. Hunting Towers, Alexandria, Va. Helen married in 1945, and lost her husband 7 years later. Since then, she has worked with the U.S. Government, for 10 years with the Department of Army, including a 3 year overseas tour. Last October she was transferred to the U.S. Weather Bureau, where she is a GS-9 Management Analyst.

ZANGARI, ALBERT, 1201 5th Ave., Riviera Beach, Florida. Al and his wife Pearl (from Merchantville) have two daughters -- Carol, 17 and Kathleen, 15. (Kathy wants to know if there are any 16 year old sons among our crowd.) Al served just short of 5 years in World War II, receiving 3 battle stars and Bronze Star. He's a 10% disabled veteran. In '50 the Zangaris toured the U.S. pulling a house trailer, and finally picked Florida as the place they wanted to live. Al's a Linotype operator at the Palm Beach Post-Times.

IN MEMORIAM

We lost two of our members during our four years at HMHS: Warren Fenton and Helen Pfleger.

Ten more have died during the past 25 years. Some of us, reading the names below, will learn for the first time of those of our classmates who have passed on. A minimal and very simple tribute we can pay to these our friends is to think about them, to remember them, and to miss them during this our 25th Reunion.
